This course will focus on the visual arts of Europe and the United States to chart a history of Western art from the prehistoric period to the present day. We will examine power, patronage, history, religion, and audience as we seek to answer fundamental questions about works of art: What is it? Who and what is it for?